

Off-the-Shelf Compliance Learning

Anti-Bribery and Corruption

To engage the learner to understand about bribery in the workplace and the requirements of the Anti-Bribery law which all companies and employees must work to.

Control of Substances Hazardous to Health (COSHH)

To develop health and safety awareness around the use of substances hazardous to health (such as chemicals) whilst at work.

Dealing with Difficult Situations (Violence and Aggression)

Designed to enhance your knowledge and understanding of how to deal with difficult situations in the workplace, including confrontations and your impact on how you deal with them.

Display Screen Equipment

This course will help employees to comply with the Health and Safety (Display Screen Equipment) Regulations 1992 with on location technology, like laptops and tablets, and for any colleagues who from time to time have to work from home with DSE equipment.

Fire Safety Essentials

To inform and assist employees in fire precautions, the issues associated with fire safety and positive actions workplaces can take to prevent fires from starting and spreading.

First Aid

Designed to engage the learner in the basics of first aid and to refresh their knowledge for those who have completed accredited training and qualifications in first aid at work.

GDPR Essentials

This course covers the General Data Protection Regulation 2018 to enhance understanding of how it relates to all people engaged with at work, which can include customers, suppliers, colleagues, consultants, contractors and others.

Manual Handling

To understand the impacts of poor manual handling on injuries, what can be done to prevent injuries relating to activities and how to manual handle safely within the workplace

Safety, Health and Wellbeing

The course covers multiple topics of health and safety and its management within the workplace, describing what all employees can do to promote safe working practice, encourage a positive health and safety culture, and prevent accidents in the workplace.

Slips, Trips and Falls at Work

Designed to develop your health and safety awareness of managing slips, trips and falls (STF) within the workplace. To assist you to take positive actions to prevent STF accidents and improve overall safety within your workplace.

Your Courses

Inform People are able to convert your existing content into our Online Learning Platform so that all your learning is in the same place.

Your Policies, Guides, Surveys & Events

The Virtual PA can also host online versions of your internal Policies, User Guides, Surveys and has a full in-person Events tracking system too.
